Business Experience

PraiseForWallflower.com - Since the summer of 2008, I've written for, organized, designed, and maintained praiseforwallflower.com, an independent music blog-style website. During this time, I delegated work to a fluidly changing team of roughly 8-10 writers, a film maker, and an audio engineer whom podcasts for the site. PraiseForWallflower generates light ad revenue.

Work Experience

Soundwaves Academy

Summer 2010 –Present: Soundwaves is a recording studio in Union, NJ offering a myriad of different services ranging from private lessons to full-fledged DVD shoots for aspiring artists. Responsibilities include:

- Assistant Audio Engineering
- Graphic, Web, Print Design
- Marketing, Promotions, Management

Nomura Securities Intl. IT Internship

Summer of 2008, May – August. Nomura is an International Securities firm with a number of trade floors worldwide. I spent a summer in their NYC location, inside WTC getting a taste of all the IT work performed there. I became most focused on graphical web design and Unix shell programming during this summer.

Subway Restaurants

March of 2005 – July 2009. Prepared food and handled money. Opened and closed the store on a regular basis. Acquired regular bi-annual pay raises.
